CARD

To the Voters of Jefferson County.

FELLOW CITIZENS, I hereby approunce mi sell a candidate or re election to the ffice o Seeriff, of your County, at the ensuing election in November.

Rused a Wing and holding to the doc rines of that party in other years, I am now a Republican. I came to Kanpolicy and voied to make Komas a free in each of their issues previous to the State. I am an unconditional Union man, and mos hear ilv favor all the measures of the Administration or the speedy suppression of the Rebellion and the overthrow of treason. I detest treason and hate rebels; and am for upholding the laws of the land in all their dignity, for standing by the National and State administrations in their efforts to crush out armed resistance to the laws and au hority of the Government, and to put down all species of anarchy and lawlessness. These are my princeples in brief, and no honest man who knows me will say to the contrary.

Thankful for your past support, I trust I may ever prove worthy of your confidence. N. W. Taylon. Sept. 10th, 1863.

The Atchison Champion has an ticle bitterly denouncing the whole system of things in this Military Department. With some truth it has more bitterness and vituperation than anything else, and is not calculated to convince thinking men on any point, except that the editor who wrote the article has not the most refined method of explaining his ideas, nor the most forcible manner of wielding an argument. Noise is not elequence, seither is rehemence logic, denunciation reason, nor canestness facts. It would be well for us all to remember these things.
